

ICHS HONOR CODE AND COMMITMENT

Thank you so much for being a part of ICHS. We believe that God has brought you to partake in what he is doing here. In an effort to be united in our common purpose at ICHS we would like for you to read and sign this Honor Code. In signing this commitment, you are pledging to live a godly life. As a Christian, your life is always on display for all to see. We live on a stage and because of that, those both inside and outside the ICS community evaluate our witness. It is important that you understand the heart behind the rules that follow in this honor code. The heart is to live like Jesus, plain and simple. This means a life of integrity, in everything from time management to your word. Keep this in mind as you read and sign this form.

I, _____, commit to the following:

I will not:

- seek out or allow any romantic involvement on campus, including pairing off, physical contact such as holding hands, lap sitting or extended hugs.
- have or use illegal drugs, alcohol, tobacco, pornography, or weapons.

I will not:

- complain or have a bad attitude.
- make fun of others.
- be rebellious, selfish or prideful.
- fight or use profane or offensive language.
- steal.

I will:

- give 100%.
- seek to be a man or woman of integrity
- speak words of encouragement.
- stand against slander, when others are speaking ill of others.
- support my God given authorities (parents, teachers, etc.).
- love others.
- have a positive attitude.
- chase after God in prayer, worship and life.
- allow the Holy Spirit to minister to and through me.
- be on time.

Violation of the Honor Code and Commitment may result in offense forms being sent home or more serious consequences. For situations that do not result in immediate suspension or dismissal, the following will be followed:

- warning
- meeting with administrator/teacher
- meeting with parents and member of ICS Administration

I have read the Honor Code and Commitment and I commit to follow everything stated above.
